Fees & Financial Agreement

Services and fees

Standard individual psychotherapy session: $150. Session length, any longer-session pricing, and fees for other services must be confirmed before scheduling. Telehealth services are provided to eligible clients located in California.

Payment

Payment is due at the time of service unless another arrangement is made in writing. Accepted payment methods and any returned-payment charges must be confirmed by the practice. No blanket promise is made that fees are tax deductible.

Cancellation and missed appointments

Please provide at least 24 hours notice to cancel or reschedule. A late-cancellation or missed-session fee may apply only if the amount and exceptions are separately disclosed and agreed upon, and only as permitted by law and applicable payer rules.

Late cancellation / no-show fee amount (practice to confirm before use)

Insurance and private pay

The practice must disclose whether it participates in insurance plans, whether superbills are available, and how out-of-network reimbursement works. Reimbursement is never guaranteed. Fees and payment responsibilities will be explained before services begin.

Good Faith Estimate

If you are uninsured or not using insurance, you may be entitled to a Good Faith Estimate of expected charges under federal law. A separate estimate and applicable dispute-resolution information should be provided when required.
